Request Information
Request Description
To create an account, users must enter their personal information (name, age, gender, ID number) and username. Users' personal information will be stored anonymously.
Justification
The project requires the capability to safely and privately store its users' information in order to function. This requirement outlines this crucial point.
Effect if declined (Risk if the project request is declined)
The system will not be able to hold onto user information, making it history insensitive.
